

The Urgent Message of Climate Change in Earth's Cryosphere: Implications for Paris 2015

Thursday December 11, 15:00-16:30
Room Caral
Buffet Following

Programme:

15.00 Welcome

Pam Pearson, Director, International Cryosphere Climate Initiative:
The "Cryosphere Imperative" for Paris 2015

15.10 Cryosphere Findings from IPCC AR5 and Recent Developments, from the Arctic to Antarctica

Dr. Georg Kaser, University of Innsbruck and Lead Author – Cryosphere, IPCC AR5 WG1

15.30 Climate Impacts on Himalayan Water Resources:

Dr. David Molden, Executive Director, ICIMOD, Kathmandu, Nepal

15.50 Pollution Impacts Along the Andes:

Dr. Laura Gallardo, Director, Centre for Climate and Resilience Research, University of Chile and co-founder, PISAC (Pollution and Impacts in the South American Cryosphere)

16.10 Panel Discussion and National Statements: How Can Cryosphere Nations Respond?

Organized by the International Cryosphere Climate Initiative (ICCI)
Questions/follow-up: Pam Pearson, +46-70-57 522 57, pam@iccinet.org or Stephanie Kinney, +1-202-431-1874, stephanie@iccinet.org.